Nondiscrimination Statement

Ararat Charter School (ACS), is committed to ensuring equal, fair, and meaningful access to employment and education services. The school does not discriminate in any employment practice, education program, or educational activity on the basis and/or association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics of age, ancestry, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity or expression, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, national origin, political affiliation, pregnancy and related conditions, race, religion, retaliation, sex (including sexual harassment), sexual orientation, Vietnam Era Veterans' status, or any other basis prohibited by California state and federal nondiscrimination laws respectively. Not all bases of discrimination will apply to both education services and employment. The Principal and Director of Operations and Compliance are charged with overseeing, leading, and directing ACS's efforts to meet the legal obligations set forth in state and federal civil rights laws, and regulations in ACS employment and delivery of education services. Inquiries regarding nondiscrimination and civil rights should be directed to the Principal and Director of Operations and Compliance.

Statute of limitations for Filing an Alleged Incident of Harassment or Discrimination

Any parent, guardian, individual, organization has the right to file a written complaint of discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and/or bullying on the basis of a protected characteristic within six months from the date the alleged incident occurred or the complainant first obtained knowledge of the facts of the alleged incident.

The timeline for filing a complaint of discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and/or bullying can be extended by Title IX Coordinator or designee, upon written request by the explaining the reasons for the extension. All extension requests to the Title IX Coordinators shall be made in writing. The period for filing may be extended by the Title IX Coordinators for a period not to exceed 90 days following the expiration of the six-month time period. The Title IX Coordinators shall respond appropriately upon a receipt for extension.

Discrimination Complaints Investigation

All complaints filed to Ararat Charter School are conducted pursuant to its Uniform Complaint Procedures (UCP) policy. ACS Title IX Coordinators will timestamp new complaints of discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and/or bullying when received and will provide an acknowledgment letter framing the allegations under the jurisdiction of the UCP and referring a complainant to appropriate offices and resources for issues not covered under UCP jurisdiction.

Under Ararat Charter School's UCP policy, ACS has sixty (60) calendar days from receipt of the complaint to investigate the complaint and to send a letter with findings to relevant parties. During the investigative process, ACS shall contact complainant and other applicable parties to request documents and information. ACS will provide an opportunity for the complainant to present evidence or information to support his/her allegations. Ararat Charter School ensures that, within 60 days of receipt of the written complaint, the complaint has been resolved and/or investigated and that a written report of findings is issued to the complainant. If the Title IX Coordinators finds that a complaint has merit, the school will take appropriate corrective action.

The complainant may appeal the School's decision within fifteen calendar days to the California Department of Education. The appeal must specify the reason for the appeal and whether the School's facts are incorrect and/or the law is misapplied. The appeal must include a copy of the original complaint to the School and a copy of the School's decision. For more information, visit the California Department of Education's webpage on Uniform Complaint Procedures: <http://www.cde.ca.gov/re/cp/uc/index.asp>.

For complaints alleging unlawful discrimination based on state law, the complainant may pursue available civil law remedies, including seeking assistance from mediation centers or public/private interest attorneys, sixty (60) calendar days after filing an appeal with the California Department of Education. (California Education Code § 262.3.)
